

Mayor of the City of Zurich Elmar Ledergerber

Dr. oec. HSG, lic. phil. I year of birth 1944

Member of the Social Democratic Party SP

Education/professional experience

1965 to 1968 studied history at Fribourg University, graduating as lic. phil. I.

1968 to 1971 studied economics at the University of St. Gallen (HSG), awarded Dr. oec. HSG in 1979.

From 1977 to 1994 Elmar Ledergerber worked as a partner at INFRAS AG (infrastructure, environment and business consultants). Up to 1998 he was Managing Director of Econcept AG (business and political consultants in the fields of economy, ecology and infrastructure development).

Elmar Ledergerber was elected Member of the City Council in 1998, and has been Mayor of the City of Zurich since 2002.

Political activities

1987 – 1998 Member of the National Council
1998 – 2002 Head of the Structural Engineering Department
Since 2002 Mayor of the City of Zurich

Mandates

- President of the Swiss development organisation Intercorporation
- Delegate of the City Council on the Board of Directors of Unique (Flughafen Zürich AG), the Zurich Airport operating company
- Ad interim President of the Board of Directors of Schauspielhaus Zürich AG, Switzerland's largest theatre